"Bag Sale"-Books by the Bag Fri-Sun, Oct. 10-12

When you imagine this sale, you have to think of a good-sized book store -- where almost all the books are .10 to $2.00. We have old & new books, many great for holiday gifts, & children's books that are in great condition.

The Native Plant Nursery also will be open.

All subjects — fiction and non-fiction. In non-fiction, we have cookbooks, history, sociology, sports, art, health & fitness, nature, text books, home, crafts, travel, gardening, reference, foreign language, spirituality, parenting and much more.

Mysteries, sci-fi, light reading, westerns and the classics are some of the neatly categorized sections of fiction. Large print books are grouped together. We also have movies, music, audio books & old records.

SHORELINE ECO-CRUISES

Sunday, Sept 14
Sunday, Sept 21
10am-1pm or
1:30-4:30 pm

Come discover the shoreline from the dock & the water! We'll take a three hour tour with Paul Dorn, fisheries biologist with the Suquamish Tribe, & Betsy Cooper, marine biologist.

Part of the tour will be on the dock, & part on the boat in Puget Sound. You have a choice of Sundays and a choice of morning or afternoon. Due to the annual popularity of the cruise, sign up soon to get a spot on the very short passenger list!

COST: $35 person/$55 couple
